

THE TERRY MAGEE MEMORIAL AWARD

Selected from Umpires in Mississippi

This award, named in honor of the late Terry Magee, a high school and college umpire from Jackson, will annually honor an umpire whose service, dedication, and character is a reflection of Mr. Magee.

Terry officiated for the MHSAA, SWAC, SCAC, Connie Mack League, Dixie League, Gulf South, and NJC. He also served as umpire of seven SWAC tournaments, the first Jackson Generals Game (AA), a Diamond Kats Game (AA), and the 2002 Dixie Boys Baseball World Series (his last baseball game).
